CHRISTELLE DURANDY

WWW.CHRISTELLEDURANDY.COM

"Daydream is a magnificent son montuno made more memorable by the divine vocalistics of Ms. Durandy and the counterpoint from the alto saxophonist Anton Denner."

Raul de Gama – Latin Jazz Network

"Vocal interpretations have been an important piece of Strayhorn's compositions throughout the years, and Durandy continues this tradition with some commanding performances that respect the jazz and Cuban elements of the arrangements."

Chip Boaz - The Latin Jazz Corner

"Vocalist Christelle Durandy nails every track she's featured in."

Lisette Corsa - Global Groove Connection

"The timbre and temperament of Durandy's voice has that rare quality of being able to transport the listener to an ethereal place."

Dimitry Ekshtut - Jazz Improv Magazine

"...The aperture in her voicing has a luxuriating Brazilian-tint that adds an alluring coating to the tribal sprints..."

Susan Frances - Jazz Review

"A fierce vocalist, with a sophisticated artistry, whose melodies moves you in all levels. A fragrance that transcends your soul and spirit. This songstress is strong and powerful!"

Ouest-France

"Durandy coyly wraps the main melody to "Passion Flower" around a smartly subdued horn arrangement. Durandy delivers yet another masterful vocal performance here, interpreting this Strayhorn classic with class and subtlety that pays tribute to both jazz and Cuban traditions."
